In the application of the provisions of this Decision, the following words and expressions shall have the meanings assigned against each, unless the context otherwise requires:

Ministry: Ministry of Justice or Ministry of Economy, as the case may be.

Minister: Minister of Justice or Minister of Economy, as the case may be.

Decretal Federal Law: Decretal Federal Law No. (20) of 2018 on Anti-money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism and Financing of Illegal Organizations.

Implementing Regulation: Cabinet Decision No. (10) of 2019 Concerning the Implementing Regulation of Decree Law No. (20) of 2018 on Anti- money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism and Illegal Organizations.

Designated Nonfinancial Businesses and Professions: Anyone who conducts one or several of the commercial or professional activities defined in Article (3) of the Implementing Regulation that are subject to the Ministry's supervision.

Article (2)

The Authority to Impose Administrative Fines

The Minister shall designate a competent authority within the Ministry to be responsible for imposing the administrative fines on the designated nonfinancial businesses and professions whenever any of the provisions of the Decree Law or the Implementing Regulation thereof is violated, as stipulated in the annexed list.

Article (3)

Amending Administrative Fines

Subject to the text of Article (14) of the Decree Law, the amount of administrative fines mentioned in the list appended to the Decision herein shall be amended by the Cabinet, whether by means of addition, deletion or amendment thereof.

Article (4)

General Provisions

1. The fines imposed pursuant to the provisions of this Decision shall be collected in accordance with the means deemed appropriate by the Ministry of Finance.
2. The Ministry may double the amount of the administrative fine imposed on the violator if the violation is repeated.
3. Imposing the administrative fine pursuant to the provisions of this Decision shall not limit the Ministry's authority to impose any of the other administrative penalties stipulated in Article (14) of the Decree Law.

Article (5)

Raising Grievance against Administrative Fines

1. The Ministry shall notify the violating party within the designated nonfinancial businesses and professions of the Ministry's decision to impose the administrative fine thereon within fifteen (15) days from the date of issuing the notice.
2. The violating party may appeal the decision to impose the administrative fine to the Minister or his/her authorized representative within fifteen (15) days from the date of being notified/informed of the decision, as the case may be.
3. The Minister may, upon reviewing the grievance:
 - A. Uphold the decision to impose the prescribed administrative fine if the reasons and justifications for issuing the decision against which the grievance was filed are valid.
 - B. Replace the prescribed administrative fine with one of the penalties stated in Article (14) of the Decree Law, taking into consideration the type of violation committed for which the grieved decision was issued to ensure that it matches the prescribed administrative fine while also making sure the aggrieved party is not harmed by its own grievance.
 - C. Cancel the prescribed administrative fine if the reasons for the violation are removed or proven invalid.
4. The decision regarding the grievance shall be final, and failure to respond to the grievance within thirty (30) days from the date of submitting the same shall mean the grievance is dismissed.
5. Appealing the decision to impose the administrative fine pursuant to the provisions of this Decision may not be accepted unless after filing grievance against the Decision or rejecting the same or if response to the same is not received within the specified period.

Article (6)

Executive Decisions

The Minister shall issue the necessary decisions to implement the provisions of this Decision.

Article (7)
